

Toddler Station

August 2017

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
		1	2	3	4	5
		Let your toddler help frost sugar cookies with yellow frosting to make sun cookies. (Sm. Motor Dev.)	Teach your child the rhyme "Star Light, Star Bright". (Rhyme)	Let your toddler stamp stars on a piece of paper with a star stamp. (Art)		Give your child a star headband and tell her that she is a "star". (Self-esteem)
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Buy some peas in the pod. Let your toddler help you count the peas as you shell them. (Math)	Use a kitchen mitt to make a simple hand puppet for your child. (Language Dev.)	Look for sunflowers with your child. Are they shorter or taller than your child? (Size/Measurement)		Give your toddler a large cardboard tube to use as a car tunnel. (Problem Solving)	Dampen sand and make sand tunnels for small cars in a sandbox. (Construction)
13	14	15	16	17	18	19
Give your toddler some sponges and a pan of water. Use the sponges to soak up and squeeze out the water. (Sm. Motor Dev.)		Toss sponges filled with water (or not) into a bucket. (Coordination)	Have your child pretend to an airplane and fly around the room. (Movement/Imagination)		Read a story about an airplane to your toddler. (Literature)	Set out 3 planes and 3 sheets of paper in matching colors. Have your child match planes to paper. (Color Matching)
20	21	22	23	24	25	26
	Help your child spread berry jam on small squares of toast. (Coordination)	Let your child help make berry shakes with vanilla ice cream and fresh berries. (Cooking)	Teach your toddler the rhyme "To Market, To Market". (Language/Rhyme)	Take your child to the market and have him look for items you need. (Problem Solving)	Let your toddler help you put away some items from the market. (Responsibility)	Let your child sponge-paint using small sponge pieces, paint and paper. (Art)
27	28	29	30	31
Make a tunnel with blankets and chairs to crawl through. (Pretend/Coordination)	Look for items in your house that are gray. (Color Recognition)		Have your toddler finger paint with white and black paint. (Art/Colors)	When dry, cut your child's grey painting into an elephant shape and hang it on the wall. (Art Appreciation)		